PACT Community Meetings

The Columbus Division of Police is announcing three community meetings to discuss the results of last month's Operation Autumn Hope.

The operation, led locally by CPD's PACT Unit (People and Community Together), was part of a statewide initiative by OOCIC (Ohio Organized Crime Investigations Commission) to engage law enforcement agencies in combating human trafficking at varying levels. The goal of this operation was to identify victims of human trafficking and their traffickers, provide support and assistance for addiction through a multifaceted approach.

Deputy Chief Jennifer Knight will host the community meetings via Zoom.

Columbus Police Community Liaison Officers will invite community groups to the meetings:

- Tuesday, November 10, 2020, 6PM Start for 9/11/13 Precincts CLO's.
- Tuesday, November 10, 2020, 7PM Start for 8/10/19 Precinct CLO's.
- Wednesday, November 11, 2020, 6PM Start for 2/5 Precinct CLO's.
